Responsibility Contract

This contract outlines the responsibilities of Geordie Theatre School (GTS), the GTS Student and the parent(s) of a GTS student.

The Student agrees to:

- Be present for all classes, rehearsals and final presentations.
- Show up on time and prepared for class.
- Be a positive, participating and supportive member of this class.
- Try new things.
- Respect GTS' policy concerning bullying which includes:
 - To treat all GTS students, teachers and staff with respect.
 - To report incidents of bullying to a trusted teacher, mentor or staff member.
 - To stand up for victims of bullying and encourage others to treat all students with respect.
 - To help make GTS a place where everyone feels safe, heard, and respected.
- Speak to the teacher(s) directly and discreetly if they have a problem.
- To not use any electronics during class time.

The Parent agrees to:

- Drop off and/or pick up their child on time.
- Provide their child with any supplies needed for class that are not provided by the school (ex. indoor footwear)
- Encourage their child to bring any of their concerns to the teacher or school director directly. If the concern remains unresolved, the parent will endeavor to speak to the teacher(s) or the school director.
- Bring their child to all classes, rehearsals and final presentations. If a child must be absent, then the school director must be informed via email prior to the class.
- Inform the GTS director of any special needs or attention that their child might require prior to the first class.

Geordie Theatre School agrees to:

- Provide students with high quality theatre education.
- Take all reports of bullying seriously by adhering to the following steps:
 - 1st report: Student will be spoken to by the teacher individually. Parent(s) will be informed.
 - 2nd report: A meeting will be held with the student, their parent(s), the teacher and the school director.
 - 3rd report: Student will receive a 1 class suspension from GTS.
 - More than 3 reports: Student will be suspended from GTS for one (1) year effective immediately.
- Keep open communication between GTS Director, GTS teachers, parents and students.
- Work with parents and students to resolve, within reason, any conflicts.
- Welcome all feedback.
